Why Sponsor?

The sponsorship packages and opportunities for Saudi Maritime & Logistics Congress integrate multiple marketing, networking and branding opportunities to create a powerful, digital-first programme that enables companies to connect, convert and continuously engage with their target audience by:

Delivering thought leadership

CEOs and senior management team members from sponsoring companies can record a podcast and video interview, allowing them to connect with and deliver thought leadership to the maritime industry.

Strengthening brand visibility

By taking advantage of the high-profile branding and sponsorship recognition opportunities included within the various sponsorship packages, companies can reinforce and enhance their visibility in the maritime industry before, during and after the event.

Connecting with industry leaders

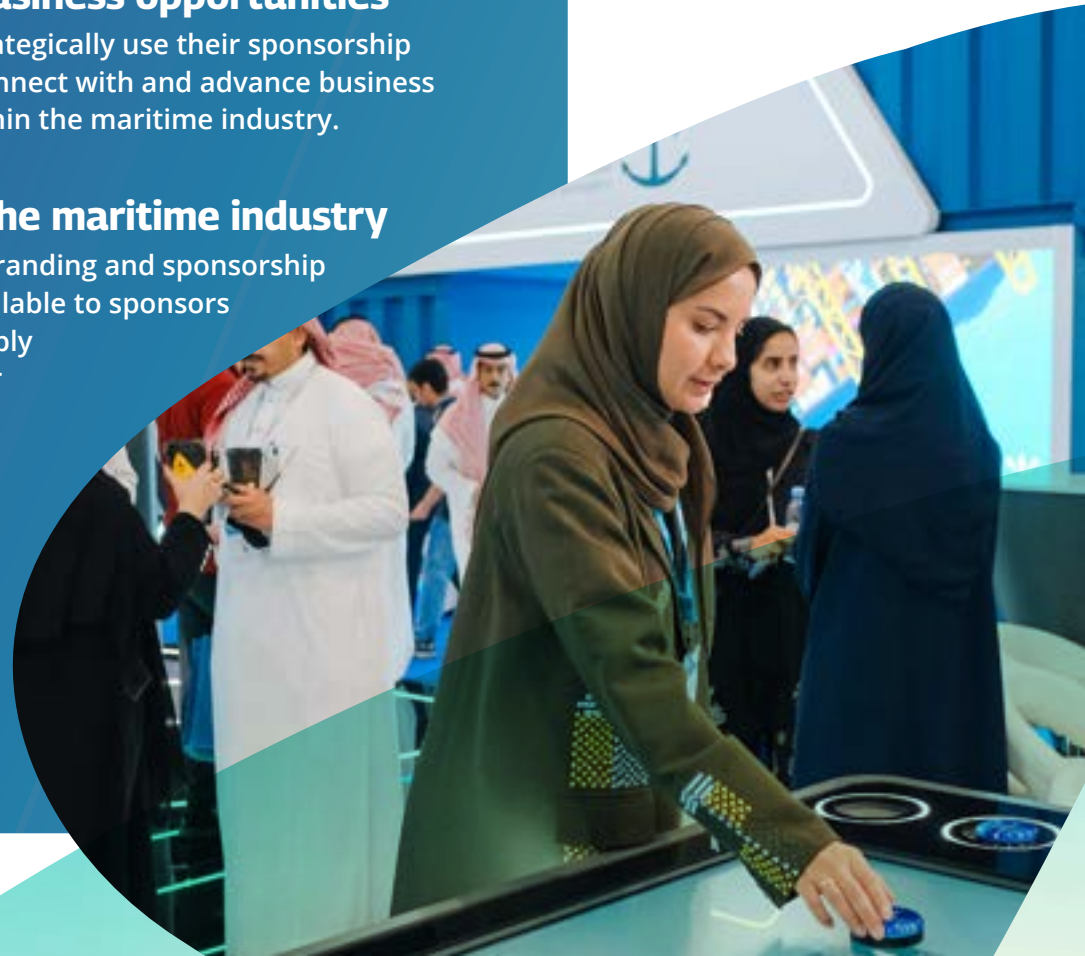

Passes to lounges and invitations to private networking receptions are shared with sponsors, giving them the opportunity to meet and continuously engage with their target audience during the event.

Advancing business opportunities

Sponsors may strategically use their sponsorship deliverables to connect with and advance business opportunities within the maritime industry.

Supporting the maritime industry

The high-profile branding and sponsorship opportunities available to sponsors allow them to visibly demonstrate their support for the maritime industry in key markets and regions.

Sponsorship Packages
